ANNOUNCING THE LAS CRUCES COMMUNITY THEATRE 2011-2012 SEASON!

Once again, this year we'll be presenting SIX outstanding full-length plays - and your 2011-2012 season ticket will provide admission to all of them!

Comedy... drama... musicals... we've got it all!

You can order your season tickets by mail,
at any performance of "Touch of Spring (Avanti!)" or on the Web at <http://lcctnm.org/>

Our 49th Year

This year's lineup starts off with Plaza Suite, a comedy by Neil Simon, directed by Les Boyse. Next, we explore the "slacker as hero" with A Thousand Clowns, directed by newcomer to directing (but not to LCCT!) Marcus Vickers. The Little Sisters of Hoboken return in their first-ever television Christmas special, broadcast live from the basement of Mt. St. Helens Convent, in Nuncrackers directed by Art Haggerton. We'll be exploring the life of C. S. Lewis in Shadowlands, directed by Patrick Payne, in January. Our One-Act Showcase for new writers, directors and actors moves to March this year (and once again season ticket holders get in free – just show your card, no punch!). A family sorts out its conflicts over the phone in Belles directed by Gail Wheeler, and we'll finish up with a musical comedy take on the events leading up to the creation of Frankenstein's Monster in Piecemeal, directed by another new director you all know, Autumn Gieb. You're gonna love it!

LCCT On The Web

We're committed to getting the word on theatre doings out to you, every way we can. We've had our website at <http://lcctnm.org/> for a long time, of course, and that won't go away. But for Facebook users, there's also now a Las Cruces Community Theatre Family group, and if you use Google Calendar, there's now a Las Cruces Community Theatre calendar – look for them on our web page!

Not Just Another Night Out!
